

The list is provided for historical record of past AATA/EPAB Approval only, as previously managed under the American Art Therapy Association/Educational Programs Approval Board (AATA/EPAB). Beginning 2016 the Art Therapy profession began a transition period to shift art therapy programs from AATA/EPAB approval processes to CAAHEP/ACATE accreditation processes. If needed, verification of a program's CAAHEP accreditation date, which replaces prior AATA/EPAB Approval processes, may be obtained from the CAAHEP directory, through the "find an accredited program" search option. <http://www.caahep.org/ACATE>.

*The list below does not include all currently accredited art therapy graduate programs. It is provided for historical record of past AATA/EPAB Approval only.
